Sara,

We would be willing to agree to accept service on behalf of our clients, Seadrill Limited and Fintech Advisory Inc., in exchange for entering into a response schedule as follows. We'd like 90 days from the issuance of the summons (i.e., a response deadline of September 5), with the caveat that if any other defendant agreeing to accept service gets more time than that to respond to the complaint, we'd want the same response time period as that defendant. Let us know your thoughts.

Counsel,

Please advise if you maintain your position below, or if you will agree to accept service of the adversary complaint on behalf of your clients.

Regards,
Sara

All –

This confirms our telephonic conference with the Court of this afternoon, where Judge Chapman (i) stayed all Chapter 15 proceedings, including the adversary proceeding (19-01294), and (ii) tolled the time for defendants to respond to the complaint filed in the adversary proceeding. (As to the latter, our clients Seadrill Limited and Fintech Advisory Inc. have not been served and the foreign representative is no longer authorized to attempt to serve our clients. Furthermore, we received a FedEx package this afternoon containing a copy of the summons and complaint. Given that the foreign representative had no authority to continue to act in his capacity and we are not authorized to accept service on behalf of our clients, service was not effective and we reject the copy sent to us this morning.)
